Dear Mr. Morris:

Thank you for your letter of January 24th, and for your invitation for me to be your guest of honor and speaker at a lunch or dinner. I am very pleased to accept but unfortunately can't give you a date at this particular time. I do have a number of invitations on the West Coast which I hope to combine into one trip later this year, perhaps late in the summer.

In any event, as soon as plans for a California trip start to take shape I will ask my Director of Public Affairs, Herbert E. Hetu, to contact you.

Many thanks again. I look forward to being with you and the Press Club of San Francisco in the near future.

Yours sincerely,

/s/ Stansfield Turner
